Agreeing on a stopping cue. Ask the teacher to identify a suitable stopping point for the current exercise and explain it at the learner's level. Use that agreed example during practice. Read again with the tutor listening. Keep questions about a different passage for a separate example.

Keeping lesson notes brief. Use virtual quran tuition uk three entries on a page: what we tried, what helped and what to online Quran tuition UK ask next. Include the teacher's exact page reference where available. At the following lesson read the note together and see whether it leads directly to the intended exercise.

Keep the two observations separate in the lesson record. If the learner needs help with keeping lesson notes brief, return to that exercise next time even if the first went smoothly.