What is Crazy Time?

At its core, Crazy Time is built around a huge, 64-segment mechanical money wheel operated by a live speaker. The video game happens in a brilliantly colored, whimsical studio that feels more like a set from a children's tv program than a gaming flooring.

Gamers put bets on numbers (1, 2, 5, or 10) or on among the four benefit video games (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Play Crazy Time Free Time). If the wheel stops on the section a gamer has actually wagered on, they win a payment or gain entry into an interactive bonus offer round.

Comprehending the Betting Layout

Before every spin of the primary wheel, gamers have a minimal time to put their chips on the betting grid. Understanding the frequency of each sector on the wheel is essential for grasping the game's volatility.

- Number 1: Appears 23 times on the wheel. Pays 1:1.
- Number 2: Appears 13 times on the wheel. Pays 2:1.
- Number 5: Appears 7 times on the wheel. Pays 5:1.
- Number 10: Appears 4 times on the wheel. Pays 10:1.
- Coin Flip: Appears 4 times on the wheel. Sets Off the Coin Flip reward.
- Money Hunt: Appears 2 times on the wheel. Triggers the Cash Hunt reward.
- Pachinko: Appears 2 times on the wheel. Triggers the Pachinko benefit.
- Crazy Time: Appears 1 time on the wheel. Triggers the supreme perk round.

The Top Slot Feature

Above the primary money wheel sits a smaller, two-reel slot maker called the Top Slot. With every spin of the primary wheel, the Top Slot likewise spins automatically. It generates a random multiplier and sets it with a random bet spot (either a number or a perk game).

If the main wheel arrive on the specific matching sector, the payment for that number or the multiplier for that bonus offer round is increased appropriately. This is where enormous payments can start to form before gamers even reach a reward round.

The Four Extravagant Bonus Rounds

The real body and soul of Crazy Time are its 4 benefit rounds. These mini-games transportation players far from the main wheel and into immersive, computer-generated benefit environments.

1. Coin Flip

The simplest of the 4 reward rounds, Coin Flip offers a quick and uncomplicated mechanic.

- How it works: A coin with a red side and a blue side is put in a mechanical flipper. Each side is appointed a random multiplier before the flip.
- The Outcome: Whichever color faces upward when the coin lands identifies the multiplier used to the player's stake.

2. Cash Hunt

Money Hunt is an interactive shooting gallery design video game where gamers should make a split-second decision.

- How it works: A massive screen displays 108 random multipliers hidden behind different signs (such as a cactus, a target, a chef's hat, etc).
- The Outcome: Players are provided a brief countdown to aim and fire an on-screen cannon at a symbol of their choice. As soon as the timer expires, all signs expose their surprise multipliers, and the gamer wins whatever value lagged their chosen target.

3. Pachinko

Inspired by the standard Japanese arcade game, the Pachinko reward round is all about gravity and thriller.

- How it works: The speaker reaches a platform and drops a puck down a large board filled with physical pegs. At the bottom of the board are different multiplier values, alongside a "DOUBLE" zone.
- The Outcome: The puck bounces down the board and lands in one of the multiplier slots. If it lands on "DOUBLE," all multipliers at the bottom of the board double in worth, and the speaker drops the puck a 2nd time. This can duplicate until the optimum multiplier limit is reached.

4. Crazy Time

The holy grail of the game, Crazy Time takes gamers behind a massive red door into a surreal, Alice-in-Wonderland-style virtual world.

- How it works: Players are faced with a massive virtual wheel featuring 64 segments filled with large multipliers and "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE" wedges. Before the wheel spins, gamers need to select one of 3 flippers (Green, Blue, or Yellow).

- The Outcome: The presenter presses a big red button to spin the wheel. Whichever sector aligns with the gamer's chosen flipper identifies their prize. If the wheel arrive on "DOUBLE" or "TRIPLE," all multipliers on the wheel are doubled or tripled, and the wheel spins once again. This process can duplicate, possibly leading to the video game's maximum advertised payment of 20,000 x the bet.

Techniques and Approach

While Crazy Time is fundamentally a game of opportunity governed by random number generators (RNG) and physical physics, players often employ various tactical techniques to handle their bankroll and maximize their home entertainment time.

- The Low-Volatility Approach (The Safety Net):
 - Focusing greatly on numbers 1 and 2, that make up a substantial portion of the wheel. This method yields frequent, smaller sized wins that help sustain the player's balance for a longer duration.
- The Bonus Hunter Approach:
 - Wagering exclusively or primarily on the four benefit rounds (Coin Flip, Cash Hunt, Pachinko, and Crazy Time). Due to the fact that these sectors appear less frequently on the wheel (only 9 sectors overall), this method involves longer dry spells in exchange for access to the game's primary function tourist attractions.
- The Balanced Approach:
 - Spreading small bets throughout both numbers and benefit rounds to guarantee eligibility for the bonus offer mini-games while preserving a cushion from regular number hits.
