2. The Examination: The doctor will inspect basic eyesight, hearing, cardiovascular health, and case history. Those who use glasses must bring them to the appointment.
3. The Cost and Result: The cost is generally managed and varies in between 7,000 and 10,000 HUF. Upon passing, the physician problems a Medical Fitness Certificate (Orvosi alkalmassági igazolás), which need to exist to the driving school.

Action 2: Complete the KRESZ (Theory) Course and Exam

In Hungary, participating in a qualified driving school (Autósiskola) is necessary. The first significant obstacle is mastering the theoretical knowledge required to browse Hungarian roadways safely.

- The Course: The KRESZ (Road Traffic Regulations) course generally includes around 28 hours of class direction. Many schools now offer these lectures completely in English, and online e-learning modules are also commonly readily available.

- The Exam: Once the course is finished, trainees sit for a computer-based multiple-choice exam at a government testing center (Közlekedési Alkalmassági és Vizsgaközpont - KAV).
    - The examination consists of 55 concerns.
    - A passing rating requires a minimum of 65 out of a possible 75 points.
    - The test is offered in English, Hungarian, and a number of other significant languages.

Step 3: Complete First Aid Training

Before taking the useful driving exam, Hungarian law requires all novice license candidates to complete a certified First Aid course (Elsősegélynyújtó tanfolyam).

- The Course: Typically organized by the Hungarian Red Cross (Magyar Vöröskereszt), this is a brief, one-day course covering basic life assistance, CPR, and accident management.
- The Exam: A practical and theoretical test administered by the Red Cross. Upon passing, the candidate gets a First Aid Certificate, which is a mandatory document for the final license issuance.

Step 4: Practical Driving Lessons and Exam

With the theory exam and emergency treatment accreditation out of the way, the next action is getting behind the wheel.

- Picking an Instructor: Students pick a driving instructor through their driving school. It is vital to find a trainer who speaks fluent English if the student is not proficient in Hungarian.
- Obligatory Hours: Hungarian law mandates a minimum of 29 driving hours, plus a final practical examination hour (amounting to 30 hours). However, numerous trainees need extra hours to feel confident.
- The Practice: Lessons cover city driving, night driving, parking maneuvers, and driving on highways (autópálya).
- The Practical Exam: Conducted by a KAV examiner, this test lasts approximately 50 minutes. It starts with a vehicle security check, followed by maneuvers on a closed course (or peaceful street), and concludes with driving in typical traffic conditions.

Step 5: Final Application at the Government Office

As Magyar Jogosítvány Gyors Beszerzése soon as the theory examination, emergency treatment accreditation, and practical driving exam are successfully completed, the driving school issues a completion certificate (Vezetői engedély kiállításához szükséges igazolás).

The candidate must then take this certificate, together with supporting files, to a city government Window (Kormányablak) to officially request the physical license card.
