A lot has changed in the Roanoke Valley since 1979. Downtown has been reinvented, the greenways have stretched along the river, Valley View Mall has come and grown, and new neighborhoods have filled the hillsides of Roanoke County. Through all of it, The Happy Housekeepers has kept doing the same job: cleaning homes for valley families. More than four decades of house cleaning in the Roanoke Valley is a record few local companies can match.

The business was started by Mary Jane Wszolek, who began offering professional cleaning in 1979 as President of Mar-Ja Enterprises, Inc. She built the company on home cleaning and a reputation for being hard-working, reliable and honest. After her sudden passing in 1999, the family company carried on, and it still describes her work ethic as the model for every visit.

Over the years the company grew. It added office cleaning under the name Corporate Clean, plus builder and contractor clean-ups, apartment manager services and move-in and move-out cleanings. That breadth of experience shows up in the residential work, where crews bring a professional standard to everyday homes.

Decades in business also mean a deep understanding of local homes. The crews have cleaned century-old houses in Old Southwest, https://johnnymhjj407.huicopper.com/pre-listing-house-cleaning-roanoke-for-home-sellers mid-century ranches in Vinton, split levels in Cave Spring and new construction out in the county. They know how Roanoke's spring pollen, humid summers and muddy winters affect a house, and they plan for it.

The service list reflects that experience. Standard visits include dusting or polishing furniture, vacuuming carpets, mopping hard floors, complete kitchen and total bathroom clean-ups and dusting of window sills, baseboards, blinds and ceiling fans. Specialized services cover spring and fall cleanings, oven and refrigerator interiors, walls and woodwork, light fixtures and basements.

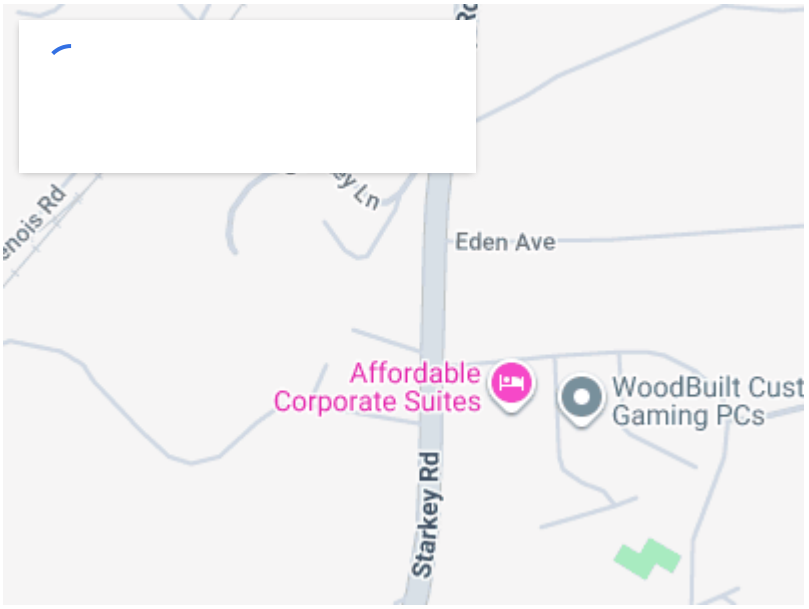

Trust is built on protection as well as reputation. The Happy Housekeepers is licensed, bonded and insured, and staff are bonded and insured by the company, so customers do not need to be home. The business displays a BBB blue seal and follows up after the first cleaning to confirm satisfaction.

Many customer relationships span years, and reviewers often mention the same team members coming back visit after visit. That continuity is what a long-running local company can offer that a newcomer cannot.

Estimates are free with no obligation, and plans can be one-time, weekly, bi-weekly or monthly, so a new generation of Roanoke families can start the same way their parents did.
