Cave Spring is one of the most established parts of Roanoke County, with tree-lined subdivisions, good schools and plenty of busy families. It is also home base for The Happy Housekeepers, whose office sits at 5145 Starkey Rd. For residents searching for house cleaning in Cave Spring, VA, that means a crew that does not have to cross the valley to reach you, and a company that has served this community since 1979.

Being close by is more than a convenience. When a team is based a few minutes from your neighborhood, schedules are easier to keep and appointments are less likely to be thrown off by traffic on Interstate 581 or Route 419. Customers in Hidden Valley, Hunting Hills, Penn Forest and the streets around Tanglewood can count on a crew that knows the area and the kinds of homes built here.

Many Cave Spring homes date from the 1970s through the 1990s, with split levels, finished basements and plenty of carpeted rooms. Those features bring their own cleaning needs. Carpets need regular vacuuming to hold up, basements collect dust and cobwebs, and kitchens that were updated a decade ago still need careful attention to keep counters and appliances looking sharp. The Happy Housekeepers covers all of it, from a complete kitchen clean-up to specialized basement cleaning.
