Give the operator the venue entrance, group size and time everyone must be inside. Ask the venue which private coach services UK entrance accepts coaches and whether arrival has to be booked. Once the operator agrees the stop, send passengers the same street name and a recognisable meeting point. A postcode alone may point to a service yard on another side of the coach hire London building.