At its core, the Mines game is a grid-based gaming title. Usually used a 5x5 grid consisting of 25 hidden tiles, the goal is simple: reveal as lots of safe areas (frequently represented as stars, gems, or gold coins) as possible while avoiding concealed landmines.

Every time a gamer reveals a safe tile, their multiplier increases. They can pick to squander their payouts at any time. Nevertheless, if they turn over a tile that hides a mine, the round ends right away, and the player loses their preliminary stake and all built up winnings for that round.

Unlike conventional slots where outcomes are totally out of the player's hands, Mines presents a layer of gamer company. The player decides how numerous mines are on the board, where to click next, and when to leave.
